New Post Office To Be Discussed

Upvalley Bureau

Carbondale councilwoman Charlotte Moro and postmaster Gerald P. Barrett will be guest speakers at a public forum sponsored by Carbondale Historical Society Thursdayt at 7:30 p.m. in the Berean Baptist Church school room.

The topic will be the plan of the U.S. Postal Service to construct a new post office on Dundaff Street which will replace the existing N. Main Street facility.

The Postal Service is expected to award bids this month for the new facility.

A question and answer period on the pros and cons of postal services moving to the new site will be conducted following remarks by Mrs. Moro and Barrett.

The society has invited the public to attend and express views.
